HOSPITALITY QUALIFICATIONS

The Hospitality Industry covers a wide range of careers from Hotel Reception through to Event Organising. It is an industry which employs a high number of young staff but where skills are in short supply. A qualification in Hospitality can set you on the path to a long and rewarding career in a vocation that suits you and your personality whether that be front of house, behind the scenes or in the kitchen.*

JACE offer Hospitality courses from Foundation Level to Level 3, each with their own individual pathways and units allowing you to tailor your qualifications to your interests and/or job.

Level One— Certificate in Hospitality

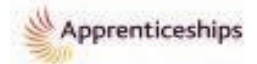

A Level One Certificate in Hospitality provides the knowledge and understanding of the importance of customer service, as well as the practical skills needed in Hospitality and can lead to opportunities in Accommodation Services, Food and Beverage Services, Food Preparation and Cooking* and Hospitality Services. Providing you with the starting blocks of a fulfilling career.

Foundation Learning

If you are considering a career in Hospitality but do not know where to start a 'Level 1 Award in Introduction to Employment in the Hospitality Industry' is a great taster course. You will cover what career opportunities are available, develop the personal skills needed to work in Hospitality, learn the principles of customer service and gain an understanding on Food safety and Health and Safety in the workplace.

Hospitality

Level Two—Diploma in Hospitality

If you are in fulltime employment or progressing from Level 1, a Level 2 QCF offers you the flexibility to tailor your qualification to your own needs with pathways available in Front of House Reception, Food and Beverage Service and Professional Cookery* . A Diploma in Hospitality can provide you with the knowledge to back up your skills allowing you to progress upwards on your chosen career ladder.

*Food Preparation and Cooking, and Professional Cookery qualifications available from summer 2012

Hospitality Apprenticeships

Apprenticeships are an excellent way of gaining qualifications and workplace experience. As an employee you can earn as you learn whilst you gain practical skills, confidence and knowledge from the workplace. A Hospitality Apprenticeship is suitable to all those wishing to pursue and progress in a successful and rewarding career in the hospitality industry. With a Hospitality apprenticeship you complete a Level 2 QCF, A Technical Certificate and Functional Skills tests in Maths and English, meaning you complete an apprenticeship with 3 qualifications.
